Ram consecration heralds new era

BISWAJEET BANERJEE

Ayodhya, a city deeply entrenched in history and spirituality, is currently undergoing a profound metamorphosis, heralding the advent of a new era. The once modest single-lane road that wound through the city has now transformed into a grand four-lane thoroughfare, adorned with broad footpaths embellished with Surya Stambhs (lamp posts).

The visual grandeur of Ram Path and Dharam Path draws comparisons to iconic locations like Connaught Place in Delhi or Hazratganj in Lucknow, symbolising the commercial hub.

Sanjeev Maurya, owner of Sri Chanakaya Chai, a tea shop on Dharam Path, expresses his enthusiasm, stating, "This Path is our Connaught Place, and soon, it will be the center of attraction in Ayodhya." Having previously worked near Delhi's Connaught Place before returning during the Covid pandemic, Maurya sees development as transformative force in the lives of Avodhva's residents.

The architectural splendor of Ram Path is heightened by Surya Stambhs lining both sides of the footpath. Along boulevard, grand multinational brands have emerged, contributing to the commercial vibrancy of the region, extending up to the district hospital crossing.

Despite the demolition of commercial establishments and residences last year to make way for the ambitious 13-kilometer Rampath, the project is on the verge of completion, with a budget of Rs. 798 crores.

Raj Kumar's sweet shop at Ram Path was among those demolished during the road widening. His wife Gita, who actively participated in the protest and even climbed onto the JCB demolishing part of her shop, now expresses contentment. A year later, they have set up a smaller sweet shop named after Rai Kumar. Gita states, "My shop is smaller than the previous one, but our income has gone up. The influx of people has increased, leading to higher sales of tea and samosas," she says with a smile.

As one approaches Udaya crossing, the demarcation between Ayodhya (old Faizabad) and Ayodhya Dham becomes evident. Development Authority has implemented a building code here, giving all structures, both commercial and residential, a consistent light ochre hue. This transition point marks the beginning of a visual journey offering a clear line of sight to Garhi, Hanuman Mangeshkar Chowk, and Ram Ki Paidi.

Bhakti Path, a road leading to Ram Mandir, intersects with Ram Path, creating a symbolic intersection of devotion and cultural significance. Shops lining both sides of Ram Path, resplendent in ochre, predominantly offer flags of Lord Hanuman, adding to the spiritual ambiance of the area. Ayodhya's vibrancy is not confined to daylight hours; as

New Ram Lalla statue to be placed soon

The eagerly awaited installation of the newly crafted statue of Ram Lalla in the sanctum sanctorum is scheduled for January 18, marking a historic moment for devotees while the consecration will take place on January 22.

In a testament to the continuity of devotion, the present idol, revered for seven decades, will find its sacred place within the confines of the new temple,

Champat Rai, the General Secretary of the Janmabhoomi Temple Trust, revealed that the statue, expertly carved in black stone by Karnataka's renowned sculptor Arun Yogiraj, will take

Fashioned from Shyam Shila, the Ramlala idol boasts a lifespan of thousands of years and is impervious to water. Applications of sandalwood and roli will not diminish the idol's shine. Standing at a majestic 51 inches from toe to forehead and weighing between 150 to 200 kg, the idol is adorned with a crown and aura, while the arms of Shri Ram extend gracefully to the

Temple doors to open for devotees on January 23

In a momentous announcement, the doors of the Rar Temple are set to swing open for devotees on January 23, mark ing a significant milestone following the grand inauguration cer emony. Shri Ram Janmabhoomi Teerth Kshetra Trust Genera Secretary, Champat Rai, unveiled comprehensive measures t ensure a seamless and regulated entry process for all pilgrims Rai emphasised the necessity for a well-organised approach indicating the possibility of extending the temple entry int the night to accommodate a maximum number of devotees Concurrently, the entry of Vishva Hindu Parishad (VHP), RS. and other members of 'vichar pariwar' (like-minde organizations) is scheduled to commence from January 26. To manage the anticipated influx, specific time slots an batches will be allocated to devotees and other groups ensuring strict adherence to the designated schedule. With a expected daily turnout of 4,500 to 5,000 visitors, each person is requested to limit their stay to one day. This arrangement i slated to remain in effect until February 23 or 24, as per Rai

Modi gets rousing welcome in Kochi

KUMAR CHELLAPPAN KOCHI

In less than a fortnight after his whirlwind tour to Thrissur where he rocked the people with a scintillating road show on 3 January, Prime Minister Narendra Modi took Kochi by storm on Tuesday with a 1.5 km road show.

The Prime Minister reached Kochi straight from Paal Samudra in Andhra Pradesh where he dedicated to the nation a state-of-the-art National Academy Customs, Indirect Taxes and Narcotics, an establishment to train and equip the taxmen of Thousands had gathered on both sides of the thoroughfare at Ernakulam hours before the Prime Minister landed at Southern Naval Command's airport. The Prime Minister was received by the people by showering him with petals of flowers. What made these road shows unique is the fact that Narendra Modi is the first Prime Minister in the country to stage road shows in Kerala. The Prime Minister was accorded warm welcome by the twitteratti with the hashtag #SuSwagatham Prime

The Prime Minister is scheduled to take off to Guruvayur by 6 am on Wednesday to attend the marriage of Bhagya, daughter of actor Suresh Gopi at the Lord Krishna Temple. He will also worship at the Bharath Temple at Trippayar after paying his obeisance at Guruvayur Temple.
